

Kelly Gartland

My name is Kelly Gartland and I am a senior at Haddon Township High School. I have managed to remain on the honor roll every year while simultaneously keeping a part-time job. I am a member of both the National German Honor Society as well as the National Art Honor society and have ranked in the top ten percent of my class.

I have been represented at the Teen Arts Festival for the past four years and was a States tour winner in 2002. Most recently a piece of mine titled "Masking the Control" was selected as a first place winner in the 2003 Clay in Mind competition and will be exhibited at the Clay Studio in Philadelphia.

Next year I plan to attend The University of the Arts as a Fine arts and teaching major. After completing my college degree I will continue my education and proceed with getting my masters degree. During my education as well as after, I plan on teaching others about art. I hope to help them see the greatness of art and what it can do for each individual, as it has done for me.
